BARBARA'S SONG

La canzone di Barbara

F. De André | G.P. Reverberi | F. De André

© 1972 Universal Music Publishing Ricordi S.r.l.

He who seeks an unfaithful mouth that tastes of strawberries and honey will find it in her
Barbara
in her he will kiss it Barbara.

She knows that every bride's bed is made of nettles and mimosa for this to another age
Barbara
will send true love
Barbara.

And meanwhile she plays at love joking with the eyes and the heart of he who perhaps hates her
Barbara
but then he will forgive her
Barbara.

And in the evening the wind invites her to strip the leaves of her daisy for every love that goes away she knows another petal will blossom for Barbara.
